Matters Arising :

001 Police Report -

No crime was reported.

B4500 is the most densely wooded road in the area. There are issues regarding ownership which the council are endeavouring to work through. However, there is only one employee in the council responsible for all tree matters.

Boulders on the adopted highway at Ty Du above Pen-y-Bryn have been removed.

One illegal bike seized; 4x4 & motorbike off-roading patrols ongoing.

GoSafe Speed monitoring van to be situated on B4500 over next few months.

002 Finance :

Current bank balance £7080.15

Oustanding cheques £411.00 (Youth club ,school, hall, KLB)

Total £6669.00

003 Graveyard: The graveyard was cut by WCBC but grass had been left to grow too long & the churchyard was left in a very untidy state. The chairman & Cllr. I.Richards spent many hours raking, tidying & carting the grass cuttings away. Pictures were supplied to the clerk who is to raise the matter with Dave Pugh at WCBC.

004 Llanarmon Youth Club & Ceiriog Eco. Project : In the absence of Cllr. K.L Benning this matter was deferred to the next meeting. However, the chairman did not think it appropriate for the Community Council to become involved with employing youth workers & the difficulties attached there to.

005 Ceiriog Valley First Responders Team :

Cllr. Freya Evans Swogger had attended the meeting in Y Ganolfan Ceiriog re. the project re-starting in the Ceiriog Valley. Whilst she was unable to be a first-responder, she would be very happy to be a co-ordinator. Cllr Swogger had also discovered that the defibrillator could be registered with the first-responders who will maintain it.

006 Street Lighting : The clerk has investigated the light outside the school (number 7) remaining out of order. Wreccsam street lighting report that the fault is a mains supply issue which has been raised with Scottish Power previously & they will again bring this to their attention.

007 A.O.B: Cllr EW Morris brought to the Council's attention the terrible state of the Cwmclyd to Springhill road. The clerk would endeavour to organise a site meeting with Dave Pugh.

The Public Conveniences are in need of some repair, although not in use but they remain the responsibility of the WCBC. Clerk to contact WCBC.

Clerk to ask Hywel Edwards to cut the graveyard hedges adjoining the show field.

Apparently there is a new code of conduct for Community Councillors. Clerk to endeavour to supply copies.

Next meeting.
