252 Reports –

- a) Police & Off Roothing –The Chair expressed his thanks to the Police in their recent activity in support of the Community.
- b) Cllr Bates (WCBC) –WCBC Zoom meeting tomorrow. Lock down lunches continuing to be a great success - 125 in the valley & 23 in Ceiriog Uchaf. Local MP Simon Barnes helped dish up! Bus Service has been changed to Link. No news on repairs to Wayfarers.
- c) Community Agent - Anne has been very active informing other agencies within WCBC of her existence. In June she made 9 referrals for help. She has also been liaising with Llangollen Health Centre, who can help with mobility issues & applying for help. Anne has written a leaflet in Welsh & English, which will be delivered to each household in the area. The Chair will help with publication. The Chair informed the meeting that the Community Hall had received a £10,000 Covid grant & this should help with community activities in the Hall going forward.

253 Finance/Bank – This was dealt with in the preceding AGM.

254 A.O.B – The bus shelter in Llanarmon is in need of more serious repair than just painting. Clerk has spoken to WCBC who deny it is their responsibility Cllr Bates (WCBC) told us this is inevitably their opening gambit. Clerk to follow this up with Cllr Bates plus the railings surrounding the green in Tregeiriog. The school alarm is constantly going off. Cllr Owens, as school governor, to make enquires. Cllr Edwards was concerned the Health Centre in Glyn remains closed. Cllr Bates to make enquiries.
